

Against Whom Should the Real War Be?

Russian political scientist and philosopher Alexandr Dugin shared a new message:

“The coming war is inevitable. But between whom? The just war must be between the illegitimate globalist liberal elites and the people. The rebellion of the silent and oppressed majority worldwide. The wrong war will be between countries or nations.”

Unfortunately, with the bursting of the global financial bubble after 2008, we are heading full speed towards that “wrong” war.

The war has already begun. The globalist liberal elites used Ukraine as bait for Russia and their hired killers incited Israel to commit genocide against Palestine. Now, they are planning a new war between Turkey and Israel in Syria, using the PKK. Provocations are also increasing in the Mediterranean, via Cyprus and the Aegean. These are the oligarchic structure that has been controlling the US and Europe from behind the scenes. These are the bankers who have profited from every war since Napoleon. Their names are sometimes Rothschild, sometimes Warburg, sometimes Rockefeller, BlackRock, Goldman Sachs, etc.

The Pentagon and the Fed are in their hands. They print money and pump arms sales. Their primary organization after World War II became NATO. NATO was never a defense organization. By creating war and terror, it prevented the rich from being questioned by the poor. It held the politics and economies of its member countries hostage. Take Turkey, for example. They violated Atatürk’s testament, “Never enter into alliances with the West,” 14 years later. The US/NATO entered Türkiye’s nervous system in 1947. From 1952 onward, it created a tumor in its brain. It damaged its cardiovascular system. It curved its spine and neutralized immune agents in its cellular structure. Thus, Türkiye became the sick man again, just 100 years after the collapse of the Ottoman Empire. Turkish politics has once again become aligned with the West for 87 years. But recently, such changes have been taking place that they are causing massive geopolitical earthquakes that occur only once every 500 years.

Just 35 years after the collapse of the USSR, China and Russia are organizing the global south and collectively opposing the West. The regional chaos created by Israel is pushing nuclear power Pakistan and Saudi Arabia into a defensive alliance, which other countries in the region are likely to join. The surprising words of Devlet Bahçeli, who, with his complete dependence on NATO, was the last person to suggest an alliance with China and Russia in Turkey, have fallen like a bombshell.

Erdoğan’s coalition partner Bahçeli, who once labeled anti-Western and anti-NATO Eurasianists as “Eurussians” and declared them Russian agents, has now proposed a “CRT” alliance: China, Russia, and Turkey!

Come on, closer from here. Which mountain did the wolf die on? So, the situation is that dire. Is an alliance with Russia and China that easy? It requires not only withdrawing from NATO, but also purging NATO from the state and society politically, economically, and culturally. A complete blood transfusion is essential for treatment. Tumors must also be removed from the body. It is crucial to first explain to the opposition that NATO is not a simple defense organization, but a vicious, mafia-based, capitalist exploitation mechanism.

Let no one doubt the current state of Turkey: it is the work of the globalist capitalist elites who control the US and NATO, and their collaborators. They have taken control of our country in every way and are making it do whatever they want. They have turned our paradise into a landfill for concrete and mining, turned it into a migrant dumping ground, imprisoned its soldiers, put terrorists in parliament, destroyed secularism, and seized its politics, economy, media, academia, and bureaucracy through a virtual internal invasion.

Their ultimate goal is to pit nations, peoples, and countries against each other and, just as they did in Ukraine, to secure unconditional and uncontrolled slaves and lands for themselves. They use every innovation and technology to achieve this. They manipulate the politicians and leaders they control in both the West and East to impose their will.

If humanity is to achieve a period of peace and prosperity, the just war will be their elimination. The unjust and wrong war Dugin speaks of is the shedding of blood for their interests. The West has always been the aggressor throughout history, and it remains so today. The collective West, controlled by the global elites, has shifted to a warlike position against Venezuela, Iran, Turkey, Russia, China, India, Yemen, and all of Africa.

The most important thing that gives me hope is that the people in the West are now waking up to the situation and are taking action against the puppets of the global liberal elite.

Trump, the Israeli-serving Epstein cronies in the US, Macron, the Rothschild banker, Merz, the Blackrock representative in Germany, and Starmer, the Chatham House puppet, all hover around the bottom in public support.

Ironically, none of the so-called far-right parties are pro-war. The so-called left, liberal, or anti-democratic forces under the globalist umbrella constantly incite war. Humanity has been successful against them once. The 1917 revolution in Russia during World War I and the 1949 Chinese revolution after World War II are examples of how this can happen.

Communism is not necessary; true power of the people and true human rights are more than enough. The revolutionary Atatürk model, an example to oppressed nations, is evident. Today, the possibilities for this are increasing. While the West is collapsing politically, economically, and culturally, the East and South are developing and rising. Most importantly, they are coming together.

As for NATO, its relevance as an outdated war and colonial organization (it technically lost its power in 1990 anyway) is diminishing day by day.
