*Some very big news continues to coalesce in the minds of those of us who are paying attention to the unfolding contemporary history of these extraordinary times. As it now stands, the Israeli and US governments are currently on the losing side of the aggressive war they initiated with the Islamic Republic of Iran.

The initiation of a formal state of war with Iran began with Israel’s illegal and unprovoked invasion of Iran on Friday June the 13th and with the USA’s illegal drop on June 22 of the biggest bombs in its arsenal on three sites devoted to the production of nuclear materials for peaceful use.

As Mike Whitney reported on 28 June, the government of Israel called on President Donald Trump to declare on day 12 of the conflict, an undocumented “ceasefire” in the violent exchanges between Israel and Iran. The Israeli PM called for this halt because Israel was getting clobbered by the accurate targeting of the large Iranian missile fleet on many strategic sites of destruction.

For the first time in history, the world was being presented with a vivid display of Iran’s highly effective array of ballistic and hypersonic projectiles aimed at the key installations of a formidable enemy. Never before has Israel experienced so much military destructiveness pointed its way, destruction widely filmed and photographed and disseminated to the world. A major shift in the global balance of power has already taken place.

A large portion of the incoming missiles were getting through the faulty protective barriers with the effect that Israel’s core strategic assets were “getting systematically pulverized.” Something had to be done “to stop the bleeding” of people as well as the obliteration of the infrastructures necessary for the support of human life.

Based on his partial survey of major sites destroyed by Tehran, Whitney adds, “That’s why Israel ‘threw in the towel’ less than 2 weeks after the opening salvo, because Iran was decimating one target after another with no end in sight. So, Israel capitulated.

“There were a lot of missile hits in IDF bases, in strategic sites that we still don't report about...It created a situation where people don't realize how precise the Iranians were and how much damage they caused”

Watch on X

A big part of the panic created by Iran's response to Israel's initial invasion is revealed by the Netanyahu government's quick decision to limit and block the flow of information. Netanyahu decided to shut down, black out and outlaw honest recording and reporting of the widespread devastation wrought in Tel-Aviv, Haifa and in many other strategic locales throughout Israel.

The aim was to obscure understanding inside and outside Israel of Iran's precision missile strikes during the preliminary twelve-day phase of a conflict that probably cannot be held back given the enormity of the existential stakes on both sides.

Given the enormity of the rhetorical hostility heaped on Iran over decades, it was not that surprising to see the large scale of the Israeli sneak attack mounted behind the distracting cover of peace negotiations. The Iranian assault on Israel was mustered up in a hurried response to the devastating scale of the initial the Friday the 13th invasion. This Iranian response came to constitute by far the biggest, most lethal bullet ever to penetrate the myth of the invincible Israel protected by the invincible IDF.

With the backing of its US partner, Israel effectively raised the white flag at least temporarily. The objective was to live in order to fight again in the war mongering country whose conquistadorial veneer seems to be coming unglued as David pointed big poison arrows at a wounded Goliath.

Iran, Israel, and Palestine

The media's preoccupation with the new war pitting Iran against Israel and its partner in crime, the United States, briefly marginalized coverage of the genocidal assault still underway in Gaza and the West Bank. Yet another variation of the sporadic ceasefire chorus is being raised in this context as June becomes July. This genocidal assault now reaching Iran was initially justified on the basis of a premeditated con job presented to the world on October 7, 2023.

That engineered event created the initial burst that has enabled War Lord Benjamin Netanyahu to move from one invasion to the next in his sleazy and self-serving effort to evade prosecution by law the enforcement officials in his own country. What does law enforcement mean any longer in the capital of a criminal country dispensing genocide as its primary day-to-day preoccupation?

In the latest stage of the blood-curdling genocide, the occupying power lures its starving subjects to food distribution sites only to shoot the selected survivors of the 400,000 Palestinians already exterminated since Oct. 7, 2023.

Are the IDF gunmen conducting the ongoing extermination of the starving population, aiming their weapons at random targets? Or is some deliberate process of selection for execution taking place?

The prospect of eliminating Iran in its present geopolitical form through "regime change," has gradually moved to the centre stage of the Zionist agenda.

The establishment of the Islamic Republic of Iran came about in 1979.

With the approval and backing of a number of high-ranking authorities in the West, including it seems US President Jimmy Carter, the “Islamic Revolution” was set in motion with the touch down in the Iranian capital of a chartered Air France jumbo jet. On Feb. 1 1979, the 747 transported Imam Ruhollah Musavi Khomeini, then a prominent Shia cleric, along with his extended entourage. Coming from Paris, Imam Khomeini arrived in Tehran to a tumultuous welcome from a representative sample of admiring and curious Iranians.

History will remember France !
Air France pilots who flew Ayatollah Khomeini back to Iran on February 1, 1979. The pilot in command was Jean Mouy, a French-Algerian captain.
Mehrabad International Airport.

Ayatollah Khomeini had been vanquished from his country in 1964 by the US-backed puppet regime of the Shah of Iran. The Ayatollah was far from alone among other Shia clerics in his preoccupation with the injustices brought about by imperial authorities who often robbed colonized native peoples of their right to dignity, property and self-determination.

The vanquished Islamic scholar perceived Israel as an especially rapacious imperial polity that draws on the imperial heritage of the British Empire as well as the heavily militarized American superpower.

The other side of this imperial coin coalesced in the Ayatollah's empathetic understanding concerning the continuing plight of the Palestinians. The contemporary history presently unfolding right before us, presents an open window that is exposing the excruciatingly horrific fate of native Palestinians under the ongoing genocidal derangement of US and Israeli authorities.

Ayatollah Khomeini helped to shape the underlying principles of the Islamic Republic of Iran in ways that placed a high emphasis on the ideal of protecting Palestinian life, land and liberty from Zionist incursions. These incursions took place in order to fulfill the fetish of ethnocentric Jewish supremacy as the highest expression of Israel's existential purpose.

Image: Ayatollah Khamenei

After Ayatollah Khomeini died in 1989, his successor as Iran's Supreme Leader, Ayatollah Khamenei, adopted identical principles with respect to Iran's sacred duty towards the Palestinians. Ayatollah Khamenei has been much in the news as he took a firm grip on Iran's governance in the chaotic hours and days after Israel's surprise invasion.

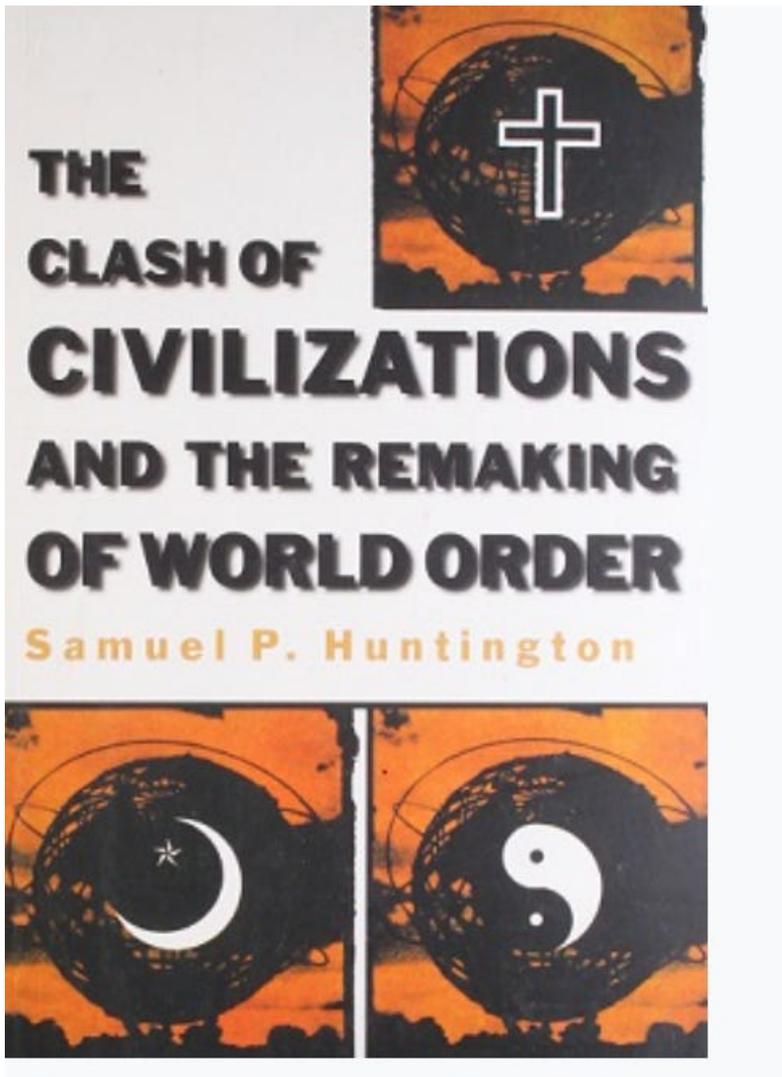

The central importance of safeguarding the lives and wellbeing of the native Palestinians from Israeli assault goes far to explaining the nature of the Zionist hostility to the Islamic Republic of Iran. The devotion of the people and government of Iran to everything that bears on the survival of the Palestinian people is so transparent and clear, that most Israelis and their Christian Zionist allies lust for the regime change to eliminate Iran as presently constituted.

From 9/11, to 10/7, to the Edge of the Apocalypse

The Israel-Iran conflict was transformed into a standard fixture frequently referred to in the manufactured discourse of the Global War on Terror (GWOT). The GWOT can be seen as the outgrowth of a purposely specious interpretation of the events of September 11, 2001.

These events have been labelled as 9/11, tellingly the telephone number for emergency calls. The 9/11 emergency measures continue to this day, along with layer upon layer of other emergency measures, to suspend the normal working of laws, government and civil society.

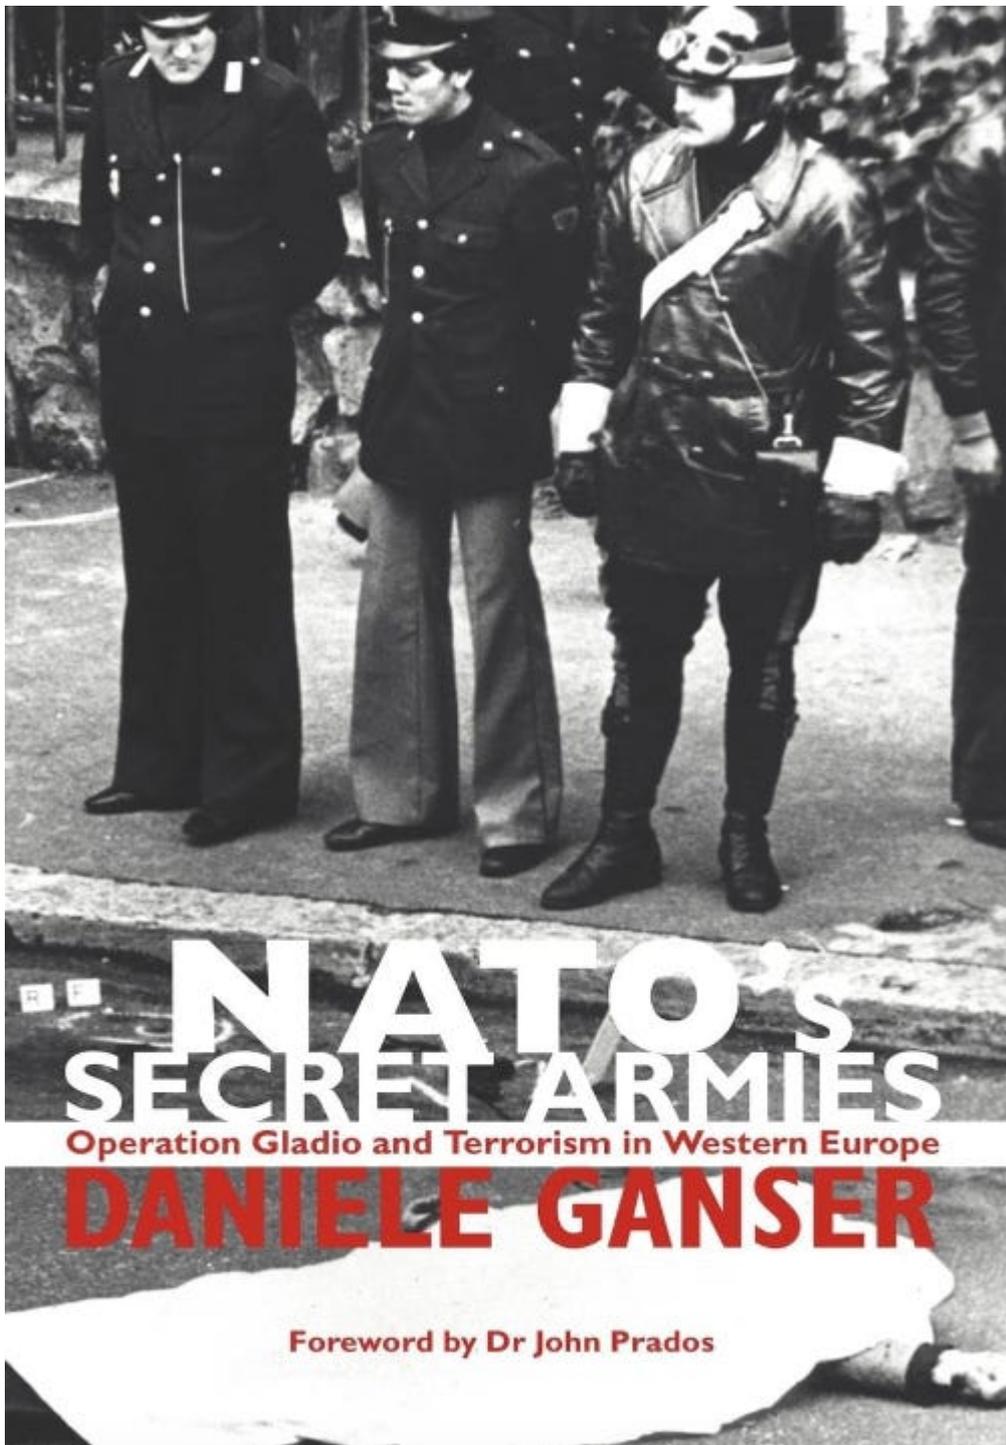

The psychological dimension of the symbolic conflict invoked by the artificially-fabricated Global War on Terror places at the forefront diabolical depictions of Islamic religion, people, governance, and culture. This hostile imagery of Islam is depicted as an integral part of a "clash of civilizations" whose chief theorists present Islam as a discordant global entity headed on a collision course with an idealized image of a harmonious "Judeo-Christian" world.

Bernard Lewis along with individuals like David Frum, Richard Perle, Paul Wolfowitz, Leo Strauss, William Kristol, Robert Kagan, Ehud Barack, Scooter Libby, Philip Zelikow, Aron Milcham, Michael Chertoff and Alvin K. Hellerstein are prominent among the real culprits of 9/11. All of those named above are Jewish Israel-Firsters with prestigious positions including as political spin doctors that regularly present the 9/11 fictions as if they are facts.

The surviving members of this cabal have played, and continue to play, key roles sustaining the lies and crimes embedded in the hugely transformative 9/11 affair.

The 9/11 deception built on the heritage of Zionist false flags in Palestine and the Middle East together with NATO's violent episodes undertaken in Operation Gladio to discredit communist political parties across Europe.

9/11 can be seen in retrospect as a classic deception that should be carefully studied as the most bold and broadly influential false flag event of our times. The term, false flag, came to be a short form for deceptive events. The term has come to represent an expansion of the original meaning of a ship that raised a false flag to misrepresent its country of origin.

Many precedents were set by 9/11 which proved to provide a battering ram in the denigration of core laws, principles, and institutions at the heart of Western Civilization.

For instance two decades after 9/11, the Covidian deceptions were made to seem something like a public health crisis enabled by a well-coordinated set of false flag events. Similarly the “inside job” of Oct. 7, 2023 would probably not have been possible without the trial and error test case provided by Operation 9/11.

The staged event was meant to generate hatred and distrust towards the global religious community of Islam. The events and misinterpretation of 9/11 should be understood first and foremost as a psychological operation.

Many thousands of people would have had to be involved in making Operation 9/11 happen. Most were American goyim charged to take care of tightly circumscribed technical issues that were instrumental in creating the illusion of a jihadist attack by Muslim hijackers acting independently.

Many of those who took care of the details essential to pulling off the ruse of 9/11 were not let into the broader discussion of the overall 9/11 project and its various deceptions, complications and objectives.

Through concerted misrepresentation and misinterpretation, the top tier of like-minded 9/11 culprits were able to exploit the event. The biggest beneficiaries were those on the Israel First side of the Israel-US partnership. The cementing of the elaborate partnership between the Israeli and US elements in the 9/11 operation helped set the stage for the Israel-US partnership whose weird and ornate workings have been on very public display since Oct. 7, 2023.

The interactions linking the Biden government and then the Trump government to the continuous rule of the Netanyahu government keep confounding all previous expectations and patterns inherited from the past. At times it becomes impossible to tell where the Israel government ends and the US government begins.

The bicultural character of Benjamin Netanyahu as genuine expression of the merger of US and Israeli culture provides an important element of the US-Israel partnership in the invasions, in the genocide, and the now in the unfolding of the high-tech war with Iran.

An example of the most recent phases of this merger-in-process has shown up in President Trump’s intervention with law enforcement officials now deep into the process of prosecuting Benjamin Netanyahu for infractions of a number of domestic criminal laws.

This prosecution has taken many unexpected twists, some involving competing interpretations of the role of Netanyahu and his immediate staff in the mysteries of what really happened in the lead up to, and in the duration of, October 7, 2023. Sometimes the events of Oct. 7 are referred to as 10/7 suggesting possible similarities between the “inside jobs” of 2001 and 2023.

Because Netanyahu is desperate to prevent any objective judicial investigation into what really happened on 10/7, the contested issues have worked their way into the domestic criminal proceedings involving the actions of the Israeli Prime Minister and his staff. What did he know on 10/7 and what did he and his staff do or not do based on whatever perceptions they had?

The US President is trying to appoint himself a law giver in the domestic trial of Netanyahu. He has put his own person forward as a sage leader who deserves standing in the ongoing criminal trial of Netanyahu.

Trump has painted a picture of a “witch hunt” against the Israeli PM who he praises as a benevolent saviour of humanity for joining with the US President in preventing Iran from developing nuclear weapons. While the focus of much reporting involves nuclear technology, the core of the real agenda is to eliminate Iran in its present form in the name of “regime change.”

Trump asserted.

It is terrible what they are doing in Israel to Bibi Netanyahu. He is a War Hero, and a Prime Minister who did a fabulous job working with the United States to bring Great Success in getting rid of the dangerous Nuclear threat in Iran. Importantly, he is right now in the process of negotiating a Deal with Hamas, which will include getting the Hostages back. How is it possible that the Prime Minister of Israel can be forced to sit in a Courtroom all day long, over NOTHING (Cigars, Bugs Bunny Doll, etc.). It is a POLITICAL WITCH HUNT, very similar to the Witch Hunt that I was forced to endure. This travesty of “Justice” will interfere with both Iran and Hamas negotiations. In other words, it is INSANITY doing what the out-of-control prosecutors are doing to Bibi Netanyahu. The United States of America spends Billions of Dollar a year, far more than on any other Nation, protecting and supporting Israel. We are not going to stand for this. We just had a Great Victory with Prime Minister Bibi Netanyahu at the helm — And this greatly tarnishes our Victory. LET BIBI GO, HE’S GOT A BIG JOB TO DO!

See this.

Trump is trying hard to closely identify himself and the Office of the US President with Benjamin Netanyahu, a man who many rightfully see as the most notorious genocidaire and war criminal of the twenty-first century. Trump’s designation of himself as some kind of character witness charged to get between the Israeli courts and the Israeli Prime Minister sets many precedents whose fuller implications are obviously troubling and large.

See this.

Trump’s intervention aimed at sabotaging judicial impartiality outside of partisan politics raises many serious issues. These issues highlight the corrosive role of a wide array of US politicians in sabotaging the essential work of the International Criminal Court by placing travel restrictions and other hostile sanctions on ICC staff members including its judges and prosecutors. The ICC is facing harsh political interference to hold it back from proceeding with its criminal prosecutions of Benjamin Netanyahu and Yoav Gallant.

This kind of vocal political interference in the arbitration of jurists in domestic and international courts underlines the collapse of not only public trust and confidence but also the integrity of core procedures for the determination of what is true and what is fictitious; of who is guilty and who is innocent. The treatment of Trump and Netanyahu has established the basis of a test case of who must live within laws and who is placed above the laws. Who is chosen for impunity no matter what crimes they commit?

Back in 2003 the Bush government simply faked the production of evidence to show that the Iraqi government of Saddam Hussein was on the verge of obtaining weapons of mass destruction. This claim was deployed to justify the forthcoming regime change invasion.

While some journalists subsequently took some responsibility for the weapons-of-mass-destruction scam, nothing of the kind ever took place with respect to the many tall tales told to back up the 9/11 fantasy.

In a similar vein Iran is currently being targeted in the course of the US invasion to enact bunker buster bomb attacks on three nuclear installations in Iran. The spin doctors overseeing the Western Media's interpretation of this story repeated a slightly revised version of the Iraqi myth that Saddam Hussein's country was just on the verge of getting its own weapons of mass destruction.

An increasingly important element of all the spin doctoring in the story of Iran and nuclear technology concerns to International Atomic Energy Agency founded in 1970. The IAEA's findings until June of 2025 are that the Iranians have never broken the terms of the Non-Proliferation Treaty in an attempt to develop nuclear weapons. In fact Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei made a fatwa first in 1989 stating Iran would not seek to development nuclear weapons.

In spite of Iran's restraint, some Iranian officials accuse the IAEA under the leadership of Director General Raphael Grossi of channeling information to Mossad in ways meant to damage Iran. Grossi has also been condemned for not pointing a finger of accusation at the attacks on Iran by the governments of Israel and the United States. These attacks represent a flagrant breach of the UN Charter and of the terms of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty.

See this.

In his 24 June, 2025 essay entitled, "Israel, Iran: The Confrontation," Thierry Meyssan confirmed that credible evidence exists to prove Grossi's connection to his Mossad partners. Meyssan wrote

"despite statements by Benjamin Netanyahu, the first Israeli documents seized by the Iranian Intelligence Ministry called into question the neutrality of Rafael Grossi, director of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), an Argentinian. They revealed that he had transmitted observations from his organization to Israel, even though Israel is not a member."

The role of Israel in this fiasco is exceedingly problematic because it possesses nuclear weapons outside the structure of international law. Accordingly, in this field as in so many others, Israel is an international pariah and outlaw whose leadership refuses to adhere to the terms of the Non-Proliferation Treaty or seek membership in the IEAE. With all this in mind, the government of Iran decided in recent days to cut off relations with the IAEA.

Let us return back to the core narrative concerning the 9/11 and the set up of Iran for dissolution through so-called regime change. The 9/11 brain trust continues to cover up the real nature of the events of Sept. 11, 2001. Consequently the absurd and ridiculous 9/11 narrative prevails in official circles until this day.

There has been no substantial alteration away from the story whose main elements were set out on the very day of 9/11 without any genuine investigation whatsoever.

Michael Chertoff was one of the key figures in the Justice Department who initially transformed the investigation of the 9/11 evidence into a systematic destruction of evidence. From the first moments after 9/11, Chertoff took charge of the US-Israel coverup, including the hasty elimination of twisted steel beams from area of the obliterated Twin Towers. These beams constituted important evidence of how the enormous structures were destroyed.

See this and this.

It seems the audacious lies about what really happened on 9/11 have been classified on high as being immune to the process of historical revision. In this respect, the 9/11 myth has been declared off bounds to factual challenge and alteration in much the same fashion as the sanctified Holocaust narrative has escaped any genuine reckoning with ongoing research.

New evidence is constantly being discovered prompting some to offer up revised interpretations, a constant process that forms a core preoccupation of professional historians worthy of expert status in a variety of academic fields.

Some members of the 9/11 brain trust made sure that the Islamic Republic of Iran was prominently smeared amidst the orgy of bloody-minded patriotism. This gung ho patriotism was aroused by the hugely transformative psychological operation pulled off by the leading figures of the Israel-US partnership. The main vehicle of the smear was inserted into George W. Bush's State of the Union Address to the US Congress on Jan, 29 2002.

Bush identified countries that he accused of giving assistance to “terrorists” as the basis of a new “Axis of Evil.” The countries he identified were Iran, Iraq, and North Korea. The sudden flaring up of the undeclared US-Israeli war on Iran can be seen as an effort to deliver the goods promised in 2002 by George Bush when he avoided any reference to evidence as top officials in the Global War on Terror typically do.
